

Identify the part of sentence that contains an error.

1. The notorious gang opened the door quietly (A) and escaped in a stolen car (B) with whatever they would collect. (C) No Error (D)
2. The technician reminded them (A) to have a thoroughly cleaning (B) of the machine after each use. (C) No Error (D)
3. There are many insurance disputes nowadays (A) because of most people do not fully understand (B) the terms and conditions of their policies. (C) No Error (D)
4. To understand twentieth-century economic practices, (A) we must be sufficiently familiar with Keynesian theories, (B) whether one agrees with them or not. (C) No Error (D)
5. Watch how careful the sparrow (A) knits the straws into (B) one another to form a nest. (C) No Error (D)
6. Each of the employees (A) have had a half-hour evaluation meeting (B) with his or her supervisor. (C) No Error (D)
7. The dog has (A) died of cold (B) last night. (C) No Error (D)
8. She said that (A) she will help me whenever (B) I was in difficulty. (C) No Error (D)
9. On my request, Lalit introduced (A) me to his friend who (B) is singer and scientist. (C) No Error (D)
10. It was her who suggested that (A) you be at the door to welcome (B) each participant on his arrival. (C) No Error (D)
11. In these days of inflation, (A) a ten rupee's note will not (B) buy you even an ordinary meal. (C) No Error (D)
12. The travellers were evacuated on Monday from Kabul (A) / in an Indian Air Force flight and spent the night (B) / at Dushanbe before airlifted in a special Air India flight. (C). No Error (D)
13. India is like to operate a few more flights (A) / to evacuate Afghan and (B)/ stranded Indian citizens in the coming days, said Mr. Kumar. (C) No Error (D)
14. Having been deprived from their homes (A) in the recent earthquake, they had no other option (B) but to take shelter in a temple. (C) No Error (D)
15. In 1963, Betty Friedan's exposé of domesticity, (A)/ The Feminine Mystique, became an immediate bestseller (B)/ and creating a national sensation (C). No error.(D)
16. While some pundits assert that the total amount of money the United States spends on foreign aid is excessive, (A) other argues that compared to other economically 13 powerful countries, (B) the USA contributes an insignificant fraction of its budget to this cause. (C) No Error (D)
17. While visiting New York, the tourist group (A) thought that the city's smog problem was (B) worse than Los Angeles. (C) No Error (D)
18. While the USA may be lagging behind Asia (A) in the electronics market and Europe in the automobile market, (B) they are still a leading agricultural nation. (C) No Error (D)

19. We have read your proposed amendment (A) to the club's by-laws and have decided to change (B) our mind about the eligibility requirements for membership. (C) No Error (D)
20. Though it began as a protest on (A) traditional theology, the Protestant Reformation (B) created a new set of traditions in its own era. (C) No Error (D)
21. The writings of economist and humanist Karl Marx influenced (A) many 20th century theorists of postmodernism, a philosophy that deconstructed (B) traditional beliefs and aims to reconsider social values and morals. (C) No Error (D)
22. The critic, tasting the dishes offered (A) by the restaurant, found that the variety of entries (B) were fairly good but somewhat unusual. (C) No Error (D)
23. The creative schedules that were formed (A) by Jeannie has allowed Bettina and Elise (B) more free time to watch foreign films. (C) No Error (D)
24. Since J.S. Bach's compositions were performed (A) in numerous cities in Germany during his lifetime, his music (B) did not gain recognition until centuries after his death. (C) No Error (D)
25. Revered as one of the world's most versatile geniuses, (A) Leonardo da Vinci excelled in everything he attempted (B) and serving as a prototype for the Renaissance man. (C) No Error (D)
26. On the shelf in the garage are a collection (A) of tools freely available to any woodworkers who (B) desire to add details to their creations. (C) No Error (D)
27. None of the children (A) has ever sang on (B) any occasion in public before. (C) No Error (D)
28. Neither of America's major political parties (A) are interested in making the trade balance (B) an important issue in the recent elections. (C) No Error (D)
29. Mrs. Johnson gave the assignment (A) to Paul and I, and we (B) decided to work together. (C) No Error (D)
30. Most of the paintings throughout this gallery appear (A) to be uncared for, and if you examine one closely, you will see (B) that the paint has faded and their frames have cracked. (C) No Error (D)